

AAEE Awards

Outstanding New Member in Career Services and Outstanding New Member in Human Resources

Award Criteria:

The Outstanding New Member Award honors one college career center professional and one school system human resources professional annually for outstanding accomplishments, contributions and/or service to AAEE within the first 5 years of membership. The professional shows commitment to the field of education and demonstrates outstanding promise for continued contributions to AAEE and potential for future success/leadership. Recipient's employing institution must be a current, paid member of AAEE. Preference will be given to those nominees who have attended previous national conferences.

Please complete the nomination form on the next page

