

AAEE Awards

Research/Publications Award

The Research/Publications Award honors individuals for outstanding efforts in research and/or publications. Nominations for the award are open to both members and non-members of the American Association for Employment in Education. Individuals are welcome and encouraged to nominate their own work for this award.

The nominated research study, paper, or publication must pertain to the goals and mission of AAEE, and must relate to a facet of education personnel administration or education career planning and placement. Examples of such work include: a dissertation, a thesis, an original research study or an office publication.

Nomination Procedures

- 1. Submit a copy of the research study, paper or publication.
